Secretary's Report Carol "CJ" Jordan #45857

Mentors Editor Marsha Phillips #47528: Her report is on the web. The next deadline is June 30. Thank you to Eldon and Jimmy who have been taking pictures all year. Thank you to State Presidents and everyone who submitted articles this year. A picture is worth a thousand words, so she loves to use the pictures. The last issue we had 94 articles and she received 1200 pictures so you can see how she had to cut them down. There are currently over 500 members that the post office is showing some type of change in their address. Thank you President Larry for this opportunity to continue to serve as Mentors Editor, but she is not going for Ron Whitmore's record.

Bi-Weekly E-Newsletter Editor Jim Miller #34554: This has been a fun year with the E-blast. Due to the date of convention, there will not be a July 1 E-news, the next issue will be July 15. If you send him information for the Chaplain, he will forward, but please remember to include Senate numbers. If you respond to the email address on the E-blast, you might not receive a response because he only uses that one for communication; instead respond to the one at the bottom of the E-blast.

Approval of Minutes Secretary Carol “CJ” Jordan #45857: Motion made by Tennessee to approve the minutes as written and 2nd by Michigan. Motion carries. She thanked Marsha and Jim for the outstanding job they did this year and also thanked everyone for all their support this year as she served as Secretary.

Treasurer’s Report John Robinson #55768.

Finance Committee Chair Mike O’Connell #40225: reported that the Finance Committee met on Wednesday morning and all members were present. Congratulations to all the members on the committee because they were all present at each meeting including the budget meeting held at the Region V Spring Meeting. They reviewed the most up to date bank statements and financial reports and everything appears to be in order. As of May 31st we were still within budget.

Membership Report MIS Chair Gary Pittenger #24804 reported that his report is on the website. Since last meeting in Cocoa Beach, we have had two quarters submitted. For March we had 1694 up for renewal, dropped 61, and added 99 for a net growth of 38. Eight of the 10 regions grew in March. In June we had 2429 up for renewal, dropped 116, and added 175, for a net growth of 59. Giving the US JCI Senate a net growth of +83 for the year! Current membership is now 7988. For the year, we had 6 Regions to Grow. Regions I, II, III, IV, V and VI. Largest Growth Region, Region IV at plus 52, Region III at plus 36, Region II at plus 25, Region V at plus 20 and Region VI at plus 18. The following States grew this year: Maine, Rhode Island, Vermont, New Jersey, New York, Pennsylvania, DC, Virginia, West VA., Alabama, Florida, Georgia, North Carolina, Kentucky, Michigan, Ohio, Minnesota, Missouri, Nebraska, North Dakota, Tennessee, and Kansas. The largest growth states: Alabama plus 37, Virginia plus 33 and Ohio plus 25. Wyoming turned in 11 new members in June and they are on their way to being recognized as an official State. At the first of the year there were 118 names on the bad address list for the Mentors, as of today, that list is down to 20. He thanked President Larry for the opportunity to work this program this year.

Approval 13-14 Budget Treasurer John Robinson #55768: They had a very productive TIE meeting on Wednesday with 12 states represented. Special thanks to Gary and Mike for all their hard work. In the back of the room were copies of the year end budget as of May. Motion made by Colorado to approve the year end budget, 2nd by Maryland. Motion carried. Also in the back of the room was the proposed budget for 14-15. Since we do not vote on the budget till our next meeting, we need to vote on the proposed budget so the bills can be paid. Motion made by Washington to approve the proposed budget, 2nd by California. Motion carried.

Outstanding State Treasurer awards were presented to the following: Terry Seeley #46163 from New Jersey, Dana M. Hall #41552 from Maine, Pam Padgett #51341 from North Carolina, Wendy Kling #60219 from Michigan, Linda Andrews #71434 from Indiana. Region VIII Bruce Sostak #52655 Thank you Region VIII for a great year, the executive team for all their help and to the VP’s, it’s been a blast.

Region IX Les Miller #45157 He has had a great year. Thanks to the VP’s for a fun time. Wyoming is working on membership and hopes to be back soon.

Region X Katina Repp #64726 Thank you to Region X and her travel buddies. Please don’t forget to come to Arizona in January because “It’s not their first Rodeo”.

The Vice Presidents then read the poem by Robert Frost, Stopping by Woods on a Snowy Evening. They presented President Larry and First Lady Ronnie with a special gift, two drawings by Lee Ann Ford Smith (framed and matted) One they all signed. They ended their year with a song to President Larry, “Take this job and shove it” President Larry then recognized the VP’s as the best.

Ambassadors

ASAC Jerry Gooding #32436: It has been a wonderful year in ASAC and for Jerry this was his swan song because this is his last report as Ambassador to ASAC. He reported on the meeting in Colombia. He introduced Iris Archibold #70731 Secretary of ASAC to talk about the upcoming Panama Encounter. They presented a video about Panama and invited everyone to Panama.

Canada Phyllis Bowers #51430: Thank you President Larry for giving her the opportunity to again serve as Ambassador to Canada. She introduced Ralph Machon #61679 to speak about the CREW meeting. The CREW meeting will be September 18-21 near Toronto. They have a lot of special things planned and they hope to see everyone there.

Europe Jim Mammen #37122: Thank you President Larry for the opportunity to serve as Ambassador. Very happy to have nine guests from Europe with us. He introduced Past British Chair, Elizabeth Walmsley #35749. She was happy to be with us and thanked President Larry and First Lady Ronnie for their friendship and for the friendship between the US JCI Senate and the British Senate. She invited everyone to come to a British Senate meeting. Gifts were exchanged between Elizabeth and President Larry. Jim then introduced Ulrich Kistner #58860 to talk about World Congress in Leipzig in November. 24-30. He talked about the week and all the events that have been planned. Since Cocoa Beach, he has been to the Drumming Out, the Spring meeting in April and two weeks ago attended the European JCI Senate Conference. He introduced the new European JCI Senate President Ellen Olsen #61977 from Norway. Since President Larry's theme has been "Keeping Promises" she has kept a promise to come to the US at least once, and since being here, she thinks she will come again. She was just elected two weeks ago and she just wants to continue to have "FUN". Jim as been Ambassador to Europe the past four years and he has really enjoyed his trips.

Chairman Reports

Constitution & By-Laws Tim Vincent #54020: The committee met on Wednesday, discussed some things with Legal Counsel and was advised that nothing needed to be done, so they had a great meeting. He asked the members of the committee to please stand so that everyone could see who has been working hard for them. Tim thanked everyone for a great job.

Convention and Bid Review Randy Young #46420: The committee met on Wednesday, no formal bids to review. They did receive a final report from the committee on Winter Board in Cocoa Beach and heard reports from the committee for Baltimore, the committee for Fall Board 2014 in Gettysburg, PA, the committee for Winter Board 2015 in Tempe, AZ and the committee for National Convention in Rochester, MN in June 2015. They discussed that they now have letters of intent for Fall Board 2015 at Lake Winnepesaukee in New Hampshire hosted by the Connecticut JCI Senate, for Winter Board 2016 hosted by the Georgia JCI Senate in the Atlanta area and National Convention 2016 hosted by the North Carolina JCI Senate in High Point. They did discuss some policy changes that will be discussed this upcoming year. Randy then asked for all the members of the Convention and Bid Review to please stand.

Future Directions Lloyd Mueller #57186.: The committee met on Wednesday with 9 of the 10 regional representatives present. The new chairman for 2014-2015 will be Ray Ainslie #44136. One proposal was brought before the committee in Cocoa Beach and was presented to the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee asked that this proposal be presented at each regional meeting for discussion. With this done, and after some tweaking, the committee proposed to the Executive Committee, and the Executive Committee has approved, the following. The committees presenting bids for 2015/2016 and forward, the registrations for Fall and Winter Board will be $75.00 and National Convention will be $140.00. The room up charge was stopped and not presented in the proposal.

Program Managers

Mentors Business Manager Kim Bode #62467: There has been great response with the sponsor sheets this year. She has received 157 sponsor sheets, had participation for all 10 regions and most States, had 21 Holiday Ads and before today the total amount received is $10,878.05. Special thanks to Walter Cahoon #27223 for his continual support. Remember it's not too early to get your ads in and the dead line is the same as the Mentors article deadline.

Chaplain Pete Reinecker #11777: Thank you President Larry for the opportunity to serve as Chaplain. He has really enjoyed this position. He has really enjoyed serving as National Chaplain this year. He then called on Past Chaplain Ray Ainslie #44136 for a special presentation. A special bell with the correct chime, and a box to store the bell, was presented to the US JCI Senate. So the US JCI Senate now has their own Memorial bell.

Jaycee Liaison Tom King #59642: His report is on the web, but he does have a couple of items to discuss. If you purchased TOYA tickets, and Tom has not already given them to you, please see Tom, he has the tickets. There are four seats available and if you would like to go see Tom after the meeting. The US Jaycee elections will be Saturday morning and they will also be voting on changing the by-laws and doing away with the June meeting. If the By-law passes, their March 2015 meeting will be in Nashville, TN. GALS will be the same weekend as Gettysburg and President Fay will be in Gettysburg and several Senators will go down for their meeting after Gettysburg. For everyone who volunteered for the picnic tomorrow, see Tom after the meeting outside. He has a list of duties for everyone. The Jaycees should be at our hotel around 12:30 or so and will be here till about 2:00. The incoming State Presidents, you have volunteered to do the clean up.

Public Relations Pat Hoelker #45893: The award winners from this weekend please let her know if you want something put in your local newspaper. All the new officers and vice presidents also let her know and she will place in your local newspaper as well. She will also send out information for your State meetings as well. For this meeting, she sent out 20 press releases to local newspapers and press releases to 7 TV Stations. She then read what she had sent.

Website Lowell Vahl #40315: His report is on the web. On the web front page, you will now find a short calendar of events. There is also a forum for sharing information such as distance from the airport to the hotel, sharing shuttle services and even sharing rooms. The outstanding State webmaster is Michael Starr from Ohio.

Products Alex Willis #34236: Products will be sold this afternoon. This is his last stand as product chairman. It has been fun.

First Timers Dawna Norfleet #61999: There were 14 first timers at the meeting Wednesday morning. All the first timers were invited to attend a reception Wednesday night. The first timers were given survivor kits and activity books for signature. The number of first timers increased at each meeting, 8 at Fall Board, 11 at Winter Board and 14 at National Convention. There was participation from 16 States and NC had a first timer at each meeting.

President's Information Exchange Terry Jones #52694: Thank you to President Larry for allowing him to serve as PIE Chairman this year. There were 22 Presidents at the PIE meeting. He asked all the State Presidents to please stand up. They did an outstanding job.

Return the Favor Angie Stuntman #64531: Her report is on the web, but wanted to give everyone the highlights for the year. We had 24 States participate this year with over 400 Senators reporting with 21,680 hours reported. Angie then presented awards to the following: Outstanding State for the 3rd quarter: West Virginia JCI Senate: Outstanding JCI Senator for 3rd quarter: Wayne Huelsmann from IL. Outstanding State for the year: Missouri JCI Senate: Outstanding Senator for the year: Martin "Toon" Bauman from MN. Outstanding Project for the year: Georgia JCI Senate, Camp Dream.

Meeting Coordinators

2014 National Convention Baltimore Gary Williams #62265 and Letha Grimes #63946: Welcome to everyone and hope everyone is having a good time. Special thanks to the great committee for all their hard work. Thank you also to the other States that have helped with meals and help tend bar and to the hotel staff for all their work. They do have a few extra shirts for sale and also hats. They asked President Larry and 1st Lady Ronnie to come up and presented them with a gift to "Welcome them back home". President Larry gave Letha and Gary one of his Presidential gifts.

Krekorian Golf Mike O'Connell #40225: The golf tournament was held on Thursday and raised over $6,000 for the foundation. Due to the rain on Wednesday night, it took longer than normal to play. Special thanks to everyone who participated.

2014 Fall BOD Gettysburg: Gary Duell #48384 and also silent Bob McDonald #58286: Reported on the "Gettysburg Experience", including a ghost tour on Thursday night, a tour of the battlefield on Friday and great hospitality. The room cutoff date is August 10 and the early registration is also August 10. They are also selling raffle tickets.

2015 Winter BOD Tempe: Jim Hampshire #38626. This is not their first Rodeo and they invite everyone to Tempe, AZ in January. Per the National Weather bureau, Tempe will have a 50% chance to be warmer than 75% of the rest of the Country. They have shirts to sell and raffle tickets. They are still working on tour info and will have that available at the next meeting.

2015 National Convention Rochester: Don Heineonen #62610: Doreen & Don Lietzau came in dressed in beach wear looking for a beach, but in Minnesota, they have over 1,000 lakes, so they invited everyone to come to Rochester MN in June 2015 for the big shindig. Early hospitality will be a hog roast on the plaza with all the fixings. There is an airport in Rochester and they have registration forms out on the table. A reminder that the early hospitality Hog Roast is from 6:00 pm to 8:00 pm only. Also they have raffle tickets for sale and are still working on tours.

Administrative Vice President closed his report by telling President Larry it was his honor to serve as his Administrative Vice President.

Legal Counsel Report Stu O'Hara #39768: He has three items to report since this is our year end convention. First none of the program managers or vice presidents were sued this year, 2nd in spite of Webmaster Lowell's best efforts, he has not found any dates on the website, and 3rd, today of all days, the Cleveland Browns are tied for 1st place.

Chairman of the Board Report Bruce Geddes #35527: As his last COB report, he doesn't have to follow Stu any more. He thanked President Larry for a great job this year. He reported the US Jaycees Foundation is conducting an essay contest, all the information is in the US Jaycee Foundation website. This will be his last report as COB, but he is not going anywhere because, now according to by-laws, he will be serving as chairman of the finance committee.

Foundation Julie Rieckman #60573: Thank you to everyone who participated in the foundation auction last night. If you have money to present, you can do so tonight at the banquet to President Earl. With everyone's help, the foundation raised $11,000 last night.

Report from the US Junior Chamber: Kristen Johnson #72859, Senate Liaison: President Fay is over at the Jaycee meeting, but will be speaking at the banquet tonight. Last night at the US Jaycee awards, they presented an award, sponsored by Bruce and Jean Geddes, to an outstanding Senator and the winner was Rob Ray #68069 from Maryland. On Saturday afternoon, there will be a training session about the new wording that is now used by the US Jaycees. Anyone wishing to attend please do so. Kristen is also serving on the 100th Anniversary of the US Jaycees and they are getting information together. She has pins and stickers that she will have at the banquet for anyone who wishes to purchase them. President Larry mentioned that Kristen was awarded the Allen Whitfield Award for being an outstanding Jaycee State President.

Special Presentation: President Larry called on Harry Kolodner #34400 and Larry White #34997 to make a special presentation. The Maryland JCI Senate presented senatorship #73400 to Leonard “Len” Chapel.

Unfinished business: None

New Business: None

First Lady’s Comments Ronnie Bohn #66024: She talked about the year of “Keeping Promises” and what a fun year it had been, except when she had to decide what to pack, or being at the airport at 4:00 am to catch a flight. But it has been so much fun as they were shown our country, or a State, the beauty of the mountains, lakes and rivers and your homes. They have been welcomed in so many homes and that has been wonderful and getting to know everyone so much better. Thank you to everyone for a wonderful, wonderful year.

President’s Comments President Larry Bohn #37024. He will hold most of his comments till the banquet tonight
