

HIGHLIGHTS OF THE 15th ANNUAL INAUGURAL BANQUET

The 15th Annual Inaugural Banquet was held on June 18, 1986, in Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Master of Ceremonies was Tennessee President, Phil Meek. Pledge of Allegiance was led by Steve Herreid. The Welcome was made by Terry Kranz, Chairman of Senate Activities for Milwaukee. Invocation was by Larry Miller. A slide presentation of the highlights of Doc's year as President was presented by the Michigan Senate.

Past President Chuck Fries introduced all international senators. They were: World President, Yomi Benson, Nigeria; Barney Ziola and Loreen Palmer, Canada; Richard van Blarcum, Aruba; Harry Romanes, New Zealand; Tetsuya Kawai and Shuich Mizuno, Japan; and Gail Simmons, Africa. Also present were Phil and Linda Berry, current JCI VP, (soon to be World President, after his election in Nagoya, Japan) and Brian and Barbara Carran, JCI VP for Area E.

Yomi Benson, World President, spoke on the Senate's involvement in the Jaycee movement.

The following year-end awards were presented by President Doc McCarty:

Outstanding VP - George Fraser, Region 9
 Outstanding Appointed Officer - Dave Habershaw, Mentor Editor
 Presidential Awards - Art Bulter, By-Law Changes
 Larry Miller, Chaplain
 John Clark, Historian

After begging all year, Doc finally gave Larry Miller a Jack Daniels hat and two solid ivory replicas of Jack Daniels stir sticks. Also after holding out all year, he gave COB, Doug Hincker, a bottle of Jack Daniels and two solid ivory replicas of Jack Daniels stir sticks.

A special award was given to Joe Eller, Presidential Aide, for all his help this year. Then gave Connie Eller a gift, (the real Presidential Aide) for her help also. Jean Miller was presented a gift for letting Larry travel with Doc this year.

In Doc's final address as President of the US JCI Senate, he admitted it was a little sad that his year was over. We are being scrutinized by the Jaycees of our actions and the things we do. We are now recognized by the US State Dept. as official Good Will Ambassadors around the world. The past year has been a real experience as he traveled to five foreign countries and 26 states. He thanked Pat for her support and help this year. And he also admitted that Pat actually run the US JCI Senate. He also thanked his Board of Directors for their help this year.

Doc installed the 1986-1987 Executive Committee and also installed the 15th US JCI Senate President, Tony Dominiec, #23393.

Tony gave Doc his Past President's pin and Past President's plaque. He then announced all his appointed officers and committeemen for the 1986-87 year. He also announced his goals for this year, which include updating the Coral Gables senate roster, having Dave Habershaw work as Special Project Coordinator in setting up the home hospitality program and having Reno as the 15 year reunion for the US JCI Senate.

Master of Ceremonies, Phil Meek, then showed Lanny Heater, why you never embarrass the Master of Ceremonies. It had something to do with a ladies coat left in Lanny's room and a pair of panties found in the pocket.

Gifts from the Executive Board were presented to Doc and Pat by COB, Doug Hincker. Also several states presented Doc and Tony with gifts.

Phil Meek thanked Wisconsin for their fine hospitality this week and then Tony was showed how the Board was behind him this year.

Adjourned with the Jaycee Creed led by Barney Ziola.
